Quote: "To me, being a Dolphin Scholar means that I have both the support of an incredible organization and the opportunity to attend my dream university. After two gap years of working as a model internationally, I am excited to return to school and study for my second career of becoming a doctor so that I may give back in any way I can. I am honored to have been selected by the foundation and am so grateful for all that they do."

Endowed Scholarship:

Lisle & Emily Kennedy Scholar
